

Festival Dance is currently seeking instructors with expertise in ballet and pointe for the 2017-2018 school year. Classes to be covered are held on the University of Idaho campus between the hours of 3:30-8:00pm Monday through Friday from late August to mid-May. Candidates should have interest in teaching and choreographing for a variety of ages and skill levels in ballet/pointe. Background and experience in teaching additional movement disciplines is highly desired.

As a multi-faceted non-profit organization in residence at the University of Idaho, Festival Dance's mission is to provide access to quality arts education and programming through Festival Dance Academy (serving ages 4 to adult), our annual Great Performances series of professional touring events, and extensive outreach activities and collaborations with numerous community and university organizations.

Please email resume outlining teaching and/or performance experience, with names and contact information for 3 references by June 5th, 2017 to Festival Dance Director, Abby Glanville at abby@festivaldance.org.

For more information about Festival Dance please visit www.festivaldance.org