

Festival Dance is seeking instructors with expertise in ballet, pointe, jazz and hip hop. Classes to be covered are held on the University of Idaho campus in the Physical Education Building, as well as in the elementary schools in Troy and Genesee. Candidates should have interest in teaching and choreographing for a variety of ages and skill levels.

As a multi-faceted non-profit organization in residence at the University of Idaho, Festival Dance's mission is to provide access to quality arts education and programming through Festival Dance Academy (serving ages 4 to adult), our annual Great Performances series of professional touring events, and extensive outreach activities and collaborations with numerous community and university organizations.

Please email resume outlining teaching and/or performance experience, with names and contact information for 3 references to Festival Dance Director, Abby Glanville at abby@festivaldance.org.
